

III: IMPROV 2000:

AN AUDIENCE CONTROLLED EXPERIMENT

"A bitter taste of hell."
-diagnosis

DIRECTIONS:

This section will be an improv game, controlled by the audience via a card system that will tell the band what to play. During the improv one of the genuine GladHandingDandies (don't accept any cheap imitations) will come around with a deck of cards. If you (the audience member) feel so compelled as to participate, tackle your fellow dandie and join in the fun!
